

Gladstone's Speech.

It Did Not Come Up to Expectations.

NO POLICY FOR HOME RULERS.

Program of the Party Not Laid Down But is Forthcoming from the Pen of the Great Liberal Leader—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Some dissatisfaction has been caused among the more advanced Liberals by the failure of Mr. Gladstone to present a clear cut and definite home rule policy in his speech at Southport. It was given out that this would be done, and there is no doubt that much of the interest in the meeting at Southport was caused by the expectation that the details of the Liberal proposals for home rule in Ireland would be then given to the public by the great Liberal leader.

It is known that such was the intention of those responsible for the meeting, and it looks as though the plan was changed at the last moment on the advice of Mr. Gladstone himself. It is now announced that this long-looked-for home rule program and a powerful statement from the pen of Mr. Gladstone supporting it will be forthcoming in a very few days.

Desperate Deed of a Bank Robber.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—About noon yesterday an unknown man entered the bank at Dedbury, six miles from Manchester, ostensibly for the purpose of opening an account. Suddenly he drew a revolver and shot Mr. Allen, the manager of the bank, and fired a second shot at a clerk, but missed him. In the confusion the man grabbed a package containing £50 and fled, taking a straight course across the fields. He was pursued and overtaken, but before he could be seized he turned the revolver upon himself and shot himself dead. It is possible that Manager Allen may recover, but his condition is serious.

The Triple Alliance Only Temporary.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The Figaro publishes what purports to be an account of an interview which recently took place between Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, and Prince John, of Liechtenstein. In the course of the interview the emperor is said to have remarked that as Gen. Boulanger had been defeated in France, Austria no longer had reason to oppose that country. This remark led the prince to remind the emperor of the treaty of alliance between Italy and Austria, whereupon the emperor replied that the alliance was merely temporary, adding that the future had many surprises in store.

Preparing for an Active Campaign.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—A meeting was held here yesterday of the leading supporters of Mr. Parnell in Dublin for the purpose of forming a council of the new tenants' defense league. A treasurer was appointed, and also a number of secretaries. All prominent members of the Irish Home Rule party. A fund of £1,000 was raised at once, and arrangements were made for county conventions in seven different counties within the next two weeks to further the tenants' league movement.

She Will Marry the Prince.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The marriage of Miss Gwendoline Caldwell to Prince Murat will be solemnized in Paris next Tuesday, the papal nuncio officiating, assisted by Archbishop Satolli, rector of the ecclesiastical academy at Rome. The latter will sail on November 3 for America to represent the pope at the opening of the new Catholic university in Washington, founded by Miss Caldwell and her sister.

He Will Soon Be Accommodated.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—A new Socialist newspaper has just been started in Breslau, Prussia, called Die Waa-keit. If it redeems the promises made in its first issue it is safe to say the editor, whose business it is to go to jail for the paper's offenses against Bismarck's press laws, will have a steady job.

Ordered Out of Germany.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Count Dillon, who has taken up a temporary abode in the little town of Lierze, in Lorraine, has been notified by the German police to quit that place at once, or he will be arrested and expelled from Germany.

Bradlaugh Better.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The condition of Mr. Bradlaugh is pronounced by his physicians rather better. His fever is abating, and there are other signs of improvement, but he is not yet considered out of danger.

Miners to Strike Throughout Belgium.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 25.—It is probable that a general strike of miners will take place throughout Belgium on Monday next.

Glove Contest at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The glove contest between Jack Hopper, of New York, and Jack Hanley, of Buffalo, formerly of Wilmington, Del., for a purse of $500, took place last night at the Buffalo Athletic club. Hanley stripped at 124½ pounds, and Hopper at 126½. Hanley was seconded by Jim Wilson and Billy Baker, and Hopper by Jim Costello and his brother. Time was called shortly after 9 o'clock, and after fighting twenty-five rounds Hopper was declared the winner, Hanley refusing to fight any longer.

Money for the World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—During the few moments that the world's fair guarantee fund subscription was opened yesterday afternoon the following amounts were pledged: C. Vanderbilt, $100,000; New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company, $100,000; Wagner Palace Car company, $50,000; Joseph Pulitzer, $50,000.

Babbitt's Will.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The will of the late B. T. Babbitt leaves the entire fortune of the testator to his wife and two daughters, and directs that the soap business be continued.

BASE BALL.

A Slim Attendance at the Fifth World's Championship Game.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The fifth game of the world's championship series played yesterday was witnessed by less than 2,000 persons. The weather was raw and chilly, and to this was the small attendance attributed. The game at first looked as if it would be a pitcher's battle between Crane for New York and Caruthers for Brooklyn, the batsmen being quickly retired in the first two innings. New York started the run getting in the third, scoring four runs on Whitney's three-bagger. Gore's base on balls, Tiernan and Brown's singles, Burns' error by missing Ward's high fly, and Smith's slow return of Richardson's liner to deep short.

The Giants again scored four runs in the fifth on Tiernan's base on balls, Brown's single, Connor's three-baser and Richardson's home run drive to the carriages. After this inning the game was a procession, the Giants winning as they pleased. Brooklyn earned but one run, Collins making a two-baser and Burns a single in the fifth inning. The score was as follows: New York 11, Brooklyn 8.

Catcher Bob Clarke hurt himself in the sixth inning while running to first base, and gave way to Bushong. Crane, as usual, proved too much for the Grooms.

Last night the two clubs attended the banquet given at the Academy of Music in honor of the Association champions.

Brotherhood Cities.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 25.—The statement made by Fra. J. Pfeiffer, of Chicago, that the Brotherhood would not locate a club in Pittsburg is denied by members of the order here. One of them said yesterday the cities in which clubs will be located are: New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Chicago. Washington and Indianapolis not being profitable base ball towns will be discarded, and the members of the Brotherhood playing in these two clubs transferred to Brooklyn and Buffalo, and an attempt will be made to have Glasscock take the position vacated by Rowe in the Pittsburg club.

Gigantic Consolidation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A liberal charter has been granted by Connecticut giving full right of way for the operation of railway and steamboat lines. The corporation has a capital stock of $1,000,000, and is headed by Russell Sage, Eugene Zimmerman and Sidney Dillon. It is believed that the new company will control the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton; Wheeling and Lake Erie; Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago; Louisville, New Albany and Chicago; Minnesota and Northwestern; and the Iowa Central. An entrance to St. Louis is to be secured, and the new combination proposes to become a formidable figure in railroad circles.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Minor Events and Little Happenings at Various Places.

Winchester, O., is threatened with a coal famine.

Lyman Dairs, aged 114, died Wednesday at Salisbury, N. Y.

Governor Foraker, though steadily improving, is still confined to his bed.

George Pflug, of Akron, lost three fingers by the accidental discharge of his gun while hunting.

Roderick McKennon, a Boston waiter, aged 28, was stabbed and killed by an unknown man.

Col. A. E. Buck, of Atlanta, has been appointed United States marshal of the northern district of Georgia.

David Mangurt committed suicide by hanging, near Charleston, W. Va. Dependancy was the cause.

About 700 journeyman tailors are on a strike at Chicago, because an objectionable foreman was not discharged.

A cotton picker has been tested in Mississippi which does the work of one hundred negroes in an entirely satisfactory manner.

Three more indictments have been returned in the Louisiana bond cases, two of them being against ex-Treasurer Burke for forgery.

Henry Luther was sentenced at Van Wert, O., to five years' imprisonment for incest, the charge being preferred by his 12-year-old daughter.

Hon. Allen G. Thurman, Hon. W. S. Grossbeck and Hon. D. W. Voorhees addressed a Democratic meeting at Music Hall, Cincinnati, last night.

Jacob Neattle shot himself in the temple at Chattanooga, Tenn. Whether the shooting was accidental or with suicidal intent has not been determined.

The remains of an unknown man, supposed to be a resident of Brazil, Ind., were found on a farm near Anderson. The cause of his death is unknown.

Michael O'Brien, of Koute, Ind., has been indicted for renting the hall for the Wier-Murphy prize fight last spring. He gave bond for trial in November.

Two children, aged 2 and 4 years, belonging to the family of a charcoal burner named Clarke, twelve miles southeast of Des Moines, Iowa, were left alone in the house, which took fire and both children were consumed.

Travis Taylor, middle-aged and married, residing at Willow Springs, Mo., in a letter proposed to Miss Fannie Osborne, living just out of that town, an elopement. With her mother the girl proceeded to town and horse-whipped him publicly.

The lively stable owners of Indianapolis have found it necessary to form an association to protect themselves from horse thieves, who, they believe, have a regularly organized gang in the city. During the last three months fifteen or twenty valuable horses have been stolen off the street or from livery stables.

While crossing the Georgetown pike, about five miles from Lexington, Ky., William Jones, a prominent farmer from Owen county, was run over by the New Orleans and Texas express and probably fatally injured. The horses which were drawing the wagon stalled on the track, and the accident resulted from that cause.

At New Philadelphia, O., Wednesday, Thomas Mullen Leonard was sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary, at hard labor, for assault with intent to rape. Edward Banks, colored, for a like offense, received a nine years' sentence. Edward Half, for shooting with intent to kill his father-in-law, was given eight years.
